

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is concerning and
seems like a clear
example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and
therefore should be
serving the public interest, not its
political interests.

Please ensure that
media consolidation
does not turn the
media into a
one-sided (either
way!) entity and
that the media can
be relied on for
fair and 2-sided
information.

Thank you,

Julie Halpin
